- IVC is picked to finish fourth in the Class AA dominated Mid-Illini Conference by The Peoria Journal Star behind Bartonville Limestone, Washington and Metamora.
- Received votes in the pre-season Class A Boys AP poll.
- IVC won their own Thanksgiving tournament this season.
- The Ghosts defeated Eureka (a team that received votes in the Preseason AP poll) by 18 points.
- Coach Jim Thornton claimed his 200th victory early this season.
- Sam Howland is a four-year starter for the Ghosts and was a second-team Mid-Illini All-conference selection.
- Ryan Thornton is regarded as one of the top ten Class A talents in the Journal Star area. He averaged 10.5 points and 2 rebounds per game in his first full varsity season last year. He also shot 40% from the 3-point line last year.
- Thornton played alongside Bradley University incoming freshmen this past summer in the Hersey Hawkins league. He is receiving interest from the Braves.
- From The Peoria Journal Star: Veteran coach Jim Thornton has one of his tallest and most talented teams in 15 years, highlighted by a roster with 11 players 6'2" or taller.
